

INDOOR GAMES

To unwind and have a good time after a meeting, convention or congress: What could be more entertaining and relaxing than joining in with some parlour games?

From the traditional table football to the most modern electronic games. You can be as competitive (or indeed non-competitive) as you like.

CHARACTERISTICS

- Table football, Pinball, Billiards, Table tennis, darts, various card games including Poker and 'pretend' casino gambling tables
- Video console games (Wii, Playstation, X-Box,...)
- Presentation and management of the activity by a Master of Ceremonies
- Identification stickers and participation certificates
- Diplomas for the winning team

TEXAS HOLD'EM

